Warning: several animals were severely hurt and/or psychologically damaged during the production of this “Best Of” book. For this reason, the US branch of the UN-funded RSPCA has removed itself voluntarily and under protest from the Board of Directors of Alt. Religion. Kibology, and has threatened nuclear air strikes should this behaviour continue.

We at Alt. Religion. Kibology would like to stress that animal testing, while indubitably cruel and painful (if done correctly), is absolutely necessary for us to enjoy the quality of life that we have come to expect, nay, DEMAND, from our Global World Leader Secret Cabal (TINC). If one more puppy needs to be skinned alive and bathed in Mary Kay Fashion Lady Pink in order to provide a funnier post to ARK, then we say “bring on the bitches and the artificial insemination combination plunger-scalpel, and let us finish the job that you people elected us to do in the first place.” If another cute baby bunny rabbit needs to have toothpicks propping its eyelids open so we can spray oven detergent into its eyes in order to create a longer-lasting, fresher-tasting meme, then we say “Screw you, screw your moral ‘cultural relativity,’ and bring us another beer, you whinging crybaby puppets of the left-wing liberal multimedia WebTV disinformation pinko God-hating conspiracy.”

If cruelty to animals were a sin against God, he wouldn't have made us bigger than them. And if God had meant us to be vegetarians, then he wouldn't have made animals out of meat. So to the limp-wristed, malnourished pansy boys who can only survive on the plants that God intended as a side salad on a big steaming plate of grilled carcass, we salute you all with a shining middle finger extended towards the sun, and a 21-gun salute from our semi-automatic armour-piercing-bullet weapons of mass destruction (aka “hunting rifles”).

We hope this clarifies our position, in the same way ghee is clarified butter used to create wonderful traditional Indian cuisine, most of it containing meat of some sort.

NOTES ABOUT THIS BOOK:

This book contains copies of the funniest material that David Pacheco posted to the alt.religion.kibology newsgroup, as a way of preserving his savage wit for future generations. For this reason this book has been printed on extra-glossy highly durable electrons, which instead of fading away like normal electrons, will attach themselves to your screen and leave an imprint which will last for several centuries, and cannot be removed. Every person who reads this "Best Of" book, is performing a valuable service by making sure that people in the 21st and 22nd centuries (and hopefully beyond) can feel the warmth, compassion and basic human kindness that radiate from every single one of David's posts. Assuming of course that we haven't been taken over by some small nation filled with ugly foreigners, and that we don't speak English any more. THE WATCHWORD IS "VIGILANCE".

The criteria for inclusion in this "Best Of" anthology were trilateral:

- (1) The post was written by David Pacheco and constitutes a painfully embarrassing memory to him now.
- (2) It was written by someone else who shares David's worldview completely (Ollie North, Michael Eisner, Tommy Lee Jones, Marshall McLuhan, Delia Smith, Martha Stewart, Gallagher, Nils Bohr, Mary-Tyler Moore or Carrot Top)
- (3) It makes a funny noise when smacked

If you are printing this book on paper, please make sure that it is the natural kind, made from wood pulp. Any other type of artificially-developed paper may contain neuro-triglycerates which will reduce the effectiveness of the dosage. PLEASE CONSULT YOUR PHYSICIAN BEFORE STARTING ANY EXERCISE PROGRAM RECOMMENDED IN THIS RELIGIOUS PAMPHLET.

Every time this book is printed, a specially-designed embedded JavaScript OS application will send a message to my email address. You will be billed as follows, payable within 30 days or your money back:

- Printing to a dot-matrix printer: $0.12/page
- Printing to a bubble-jet printer: $0.32/page
- Printing to a laser printer: $0.66/page

- Printing to a device that randomly flings ketchup/chocolate/jam onto a blank wall: $0.92/page
- Printing by writing messages into the stars to be deciphered by future generations: $1.43/star
- Printing via tattoo machine on human skin: $4.43/sq.in.
- Printing via tattoo on non-human skin: $7.48/lb.
- Printing via the swallowing of barium in patterns to make the text appear in X-Rays in your digestive system: $9.22/ft.
- Sky-writing: FREE (THIS MONTH ONLY)

Notes in this style were written at about the same time as the rest of the document, and contain information that is either redundant or extremely obvious. They can be safely ignored at your own peril. Death may ensue, eventually.

There are no further notes in this style.

couldn't fight his way out of a wet paper bag even if there were already a gaping hole in the bag from some superhero who had been trapped in it previously and succeeded in escaping by punching his or her way out using their strength-related superpower(s) for good, not for evil, like for example there was some extra-bad villain on the outside of the paper bag and that's why the superhero needed to get out, not due to some pent-up resentment held towards the paper bag or anything that could be misconstrued as repressed aggression from some other origin, suggesting instability on the superhero's mental state or possibly an ulterior motive connected to the destroying of the soggy wet paper bag.

Or so I've heard.

David can be found on alternate Fridays on alt.religion.kibology, where he re-programs his auto-responding 'bot to follow up to the relevant threads in the newsgroup for that week. Several nationwide sperm bank chains have been authorized to carry David Pacheco's "Special 1998 Brew", a year in which he was particularly intelligent, charming, witty and amusing.
